He drew his chair aside and began Milbrey.

Montana City, July 21, 1900. Dear Pete: Your letter and Martha's rec'd, and glad to hear from you. I leave latter part of this week for the mtns. Late setting out this season acct. rhu-matiz caught last winter that laid me up all spring. It was so mortal dull here a locating party to get the M. P. branch located ahead of the Short Line folks. So while you were having your fun there I was having mine here, and I had it good

The worst weather I ever did see, and I have seen some bad. Snow six to eight feet on a level and the mercury down as low as 62 with an ornery fierce wind. We "Mrs. Wybert is a lady of family and "In what way has my family been imposed upon, Mr. Bines?" asked the but two of the men got froze up bad. We reached the head of Madison Valley Feb. "Yes, I know" awhile ago, $2,000,000 in cold cash."

Jan. 8, after getting out of supplies, we abandoned our camp at Riverside and moved 10 m. down the river carrying what moved 10 m. down the river carrying what we could on our backs. Met pack train with a few supplies that night, and next day I took part of the force in boat to meet over-due load of supplies. We got froze in the ice. Left party to break through and took Billy Brue and went ahead to hunt team. Billy and me lived four days, on one ib bacon. The second day Billy took some sickness so be could day Billy took some sickness so he could not eat hardly any food; the next day he was worse, and the last day he was so bad he said the bare sight of food made him gag. I think he was a liar, because he wasn't troubled none after we got to supplies again, but I couldn't do anything with him, and so I lived high and come out slick and fat. Finally we found the team coming in. They had got stuck in the river and we had to carry out the load of the father, stiffly and the father, stiffly. "Her deportment is scrupulously correct, and I on our backs, waist-deep in running water. I see some man in the east has a fad for breaking the ice in the river and going swimming. I would not do it for any fad. Slept in snowdrift that night in wet clothes, mercury 40 below. Was 18 days going 33 miles. Broke wagon twice, then broke sled and crippled one horse. Packed the other five and went on till snow was too deep. Left the horses where four out of five died and carried supplies the rest of the way on our backs. Moved camp again on our backs and got caught in a bliz-zard and nearly all of us got our last freeze-up that time. Finally a Chinook opened the river and I took a boat up to get the abandoned camp. Got froze in harder than ever and hed to walk out. Most of the men quit on account of frozen feet, etc. etc. They are a getting to be a sissy lo these days, rather lie around a hot stove

I had to pull chain, cut brush and shovel I had to pull chain, cut brush and shovel snow after the 1st Feb. Our last stage was from Fire Hole Basin to Madlson Valley, 45 m. It was hell. Didn't see the sun but once after Feb. 1, and it stormed incessant, making short sights hecessary, and with each one we would have to dig a hole to the ground and often a ditch or a tunnel through the snow to look through. The snow was soft to the bettom through. The snow was soft to the bottom and an instrument would sink through. "Here's a fine letter to read on a hot we have a very good line, better than from Beaver Canyon, our maps filed and construction under way; all grading done and some track laid. That's what you call hustling. The main drawback is that Red Bank canyon. It's a regular avalanche for eight miles. The snow slides just fill the river. One just above our camp filled it for ¼ mile and 40 feet deep and cut down 3 ft. trees like a razor shaves your face. I had to run to get out of the way. Reached Madison Valley with one tent and it looked more like mosquito bar than canvas. The old cloth wouldn't hardly hold the patches together. I slept out doors for six weeks. I got frost-bitten considerable and the rheumawz. I tell you, at 75 1 ain't the man I used to be. I find I freed a stout tent and a good warm sleeping bag for them kind of doings newdays.
